PRESIDENT REAGAN LAUNCHES NEW INITIATIVES TO IMPROVE MINORITY BUSINESS ENTERPRISE

President Reagan has announced several new in itiatives to enhance the Federal Government's minority business development efforts. In a major White House address, Reagan said his initiatives will "promote an economic environment in which minority entrepreneurs can better marshal their talents and skill to achieve better lives for themselves, and in so doing contribute to a stronger economic base for America."

The specific steps in Reagan's program call for the Federal Government to purchase an estimated $15 billion in goods and services from minority-owned businesses in fiscal years 1983, 1984 and 1985. He urged Federal agencies in the current fiscal year to increase purchases from minority-owned firms by at least 10 percent.

Reagan praised MBDA's Minority Business Development Centers and said they will "improve Federal assistance to minority-owned firms." Through MBDA's centers and similar centers created by the Small Business Administration, 60,000 new minority-owned firms will be established over the next 10 years, he said.

President Reagan also announced that approximately $1.5 billion in credit assistance and $300 million in management and technical assistance to promote minority business development will be made available during the next three fiscal years.

ADVERTISE

THE SIGNING OF A FAIR SHARE AGREEMENT by Benjamin L. Hooks, NAACP Executive Director

This agreement is a major breakthrough for black people. It provides for an estimated $10 million in jobs and minority procurement contracts for blacks and other minorities. The agreement is consumated within the context of the NAACP's national Fair Share program, which during the past several months has led to several affirmative action commitments with major corporations across the country. It is a breakthrough because this is the first agreement we have reached since the signing of the historic agreement between the NAACP and the presidents of Edison Electric Institute and American Gas Association in early October.

By declaring its support of the Declaration of Fair Share Principles endorsed by the American Gas Association and Edison Electric Institute, the Georgia Power Company will show that by establishing a moral commitment with the communities it serves, the agreement will not only strengthen the well-being of the communities, but it will also create healthy business environments for all the benefit.

The shrewd corporate leadership demonstrated here this morning gives us hope, at a time when many have turned their backs on the problems of black Americans and other minorities. the NAACP applaudes the actions of the Georgia Power Company and welcomes its support.

4TH ANNUAL PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S SYMPOSIUM - WOMENOMICS 83

Tacoma Community College's Office of Continuing Education is offering its 4th Annual Professional Women's Symposium - WOMENOMICS 83 - on March 25 and 26, 1983.

Keynote Speaker Kate Rand Lloyd, Editor-in-Chief of Working Woman, will open the symposium on Friday evening with an update on "Today's Working Women."

The program continues on Saturday morning with a panel of successful women who will discuss "Strategies for Success."

After lunch, a series of workshops are offered on such timely topics as "Women and Power" by Dr. Kathleen O'Connor, "Managing Stress" by Dianne Basham, "Strategic Planning" by Daisy Stallworth. Wine and cheese tasting while networking concludes the 1 ½ day program late afternoon.

Registration fee is $35 which includes a 1-year gift subscription to Working Women Magazine, lunch, wine and cheese tasting, and all refreshments served.

For more information/registration, please contact the Office of Continuing Education at Tacoma Community College at 756-5020.

EIGHTH NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON BLACKS IN HIGHER EDUCATION

The presidents/chancellors of more than 100 historically black colleges and universities are expected to participate in the Eighth National Conference on Blacks in Higher Education in Washington on April 14 to 17, 1983.

The Conference is sponsored by the National Association for Equal Opportunity in Higher Education (NAFEO), founded in 1969 as a Washington based membership association of some 114 historically and predominantly black colleges and universities. Approximately 3,000 registrants are expected to attend the Conference with an even larger number of the general public expected to visit the Exhibit Hall to view the various exhibits that will be on display.

"The theme, "Linkages II,' is built around developing linkages for surviving and prospering, and signifies the importance of the progression which was made at the previous NAFEO Conference towards the development of a unified approach for meeting the higher educational needs of Black Americans."

Dr. Myers said three days of workshops will focus on a wide range of problem areas facing Black colleges and black college students. One such workshop is entitled: "The 3R's for the 1980s: Recruitment, Retention, Retrenchment and Their Linkages Among Colleges Serving Black Students."

A unique Conference highlight will be a benefit concert at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts featuring Cab Calloway on Thursday, April 14. The first part of the show will showcase some of the most talented entertainers from NAFEO member historically and predominantly black colleges/universities throughout the country.

MEDGAR EVERS' STRUGGLE, DEATH TO BE AIRED BY PBS TELEVISION

WNET Channel 13's preview showing of a movie based on Myrlie Evers' book For Us, The Living, which is about the struggle of her husband Medgar against the depth of human and racial degradation in Mississippi in the Sixties, brought back many poignant memories to a star studded audience about one of the most wrenching periods in modern U.S. history. Medgar Evers' struggle as Mississippi NAACP field director led to his assassination on the carport of his home in Jackson on the night of June 11, 1963.

"For Us, The Living", was produced for American Playhouse, public television's weekly drama series. The Public Broadcasting Service will air the 90-minute drama on Tuesday, March 22, at 9 p.m., EST. Viewers outside New York are asked to check their local listings for area broadcast dates and times.

FRIDAY NIGHT FIRESIDE TALK TO FEATURE TIM OLSEN, EDITOR OF A SMALL LOCAL PAPER

Tim Olsen, editor of a small local paper, a self employed small business man and member of the Baha'i Faith will be the speaker at the Friday night Fireside Talk on March 18 at 7:30 p.m.

The talk will be held at 1732 So. 41st Street in Tacoma. The topic of his talk will be "On Death and Dying." For more information and directions contact the Baha'i Faith at 474-8029.

INDEPENDENCE BANK HONORS FRANCE FOR BEFRIENDING BLACK ARTISTS

The beautiful portrait of Josephine Baker on the rotunda wall of Independence Bank of Chicago personified all the great black artists whom France befriended over the years and for whom the bank honored French General Gilles de la Belle-issue at a reception held last week.

Independence Bank Chairman Alvin Boutte presented a plaque to the consul general which he accepted in his country's name.

"....(F)or more than fifty years, the American black culture has fascinated the French," the French consul general said in accepting the plaque. "My country has always been opposed to any form of discrimination," he added.

The bank is located at 7936 South Cottage Grove.

RESTRAINT MARKS NUTRITION MONTH THEME

If you're going to practice this year's National Nutrition Month theme, you will have to "say yes to less" salt, fat and sugar all during March.

These are three problems of excess in the American diet, according to the American Dietetic Association and the Southern Puget Sound Dietetic Association, sponsors of the annual event.

Excessive salt intake has been associated with high blood pressure.

Eating too much fat is associated with heart disease.

And sugar is often consumed excessively when it becomes a substitute for more nutritious foods.

Cooperative Extension programs and information are available to all citizens of Pierce County with out discrimination. Just call 593-4190.

NUTRITION, CHILD BEHAVIOR TOPIC OF PLU WORKSHOP

The relationship of nutrition to behavior in school age children is the topic of a Pacific Lutheran University workshop at the Vance Airport Inn, Seattle, March 25-26.

The workshop, sponsored by the PLU School of Education's Continuing Education Program, begins with a three-hour session Friday evening and continues all day Saturday.

Dr. Alexander Schauss, director of the American Institute for Biosocial Research in Tacoma, is the workshop instructor.

Registration closes March 18. For more information call PLU, 535-7284.

SAFEWAY PROGRAMS CONTINUE

Safeway Stores will present free programs on food topics during March and April. "Round the World Cheese Tasting" will be offered at Swasey on March 3 and South Tacoma on March 16. This program will allow participants to sample both domestic and imported cheeses, while comparing value.

"Meat ... Good Taste, Good Value" will be held at Swasey on March 17. Price, value, cuts and cooking tips will be included in the program.

For more information, call any Tacoma Public Library branch or 591-5666.

EASTER PROGRAMS FOR KIDS

Easter Egg Dyeing will be conducted during late March and early April at several library locations.

Children must bring their own hard-boiled eggs to the program, and preschool age must have a parent attend with them.

NEW FOR YOU

McCormick Branch, Kobetich Branch and the Main Library are circulating VHS ½ inch video cassettes for 48 hours. Limit is two at a time with an adult card.

For more information, call any of the above locations, or pick up a 1983 catalog of video tapes and discs.

FEDERAL EMERGENCY FUNDS GRANTED FOR WASHINGTON COUNTIES

Skagit, Whatcom and Jefferson counties will receive emergency funds of more than $1.8 million to repair federal highways seriously damaged by recent flooding. The Federal Highway Administration funds had been urged by Senators Slade Gorton and Henry M. Jackson, and Congressman Al Swift.

A series of intense Pacific storms caused the damage that prompted Gov. John Spellman to declare a state of emergency for the three counties on Dec. 17, 1982 and again on Jan 10, 1983. Spellman's request for a federal disaster declaration was granted by President Reagan on January 27th.

ISAIAH

CHAPTER 57

The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his upright ness.

But draw near hi ther, ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

Against whom do ye sport yourselves against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood.

Enflaming yoursel ves with idols under every green tree, slaying the ch children in the valleys under the clift of the rocks?

Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set they bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it.

And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messenger far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

We welcome news of your church and civic events.

SERIES #1, PART 5

In previous parts series, we spoke concerning the natural and spiritual likeness of Jesus. While on earth, Isaiah known as the eagle eye prophet and one of the major prophets of the bible, saw the likeness of Jesus from a natural and spiritual standpoint. These Scripture verses I am about to give coincide and confirms the previous parts series concerning the natural and spiritual likeness of Jesus while on earth. 53rd Chapter of Isaiah, Verses 1 and 2, 3

Who hath beleived our report? and to whom is th arm of the Lord revealed?
For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness: and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.
He is desposed and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

SOCIAL SECURITY REFORM BILL REFLECTS UPSIDE-DOWN PRIORITIES
by HON. GUS SAVAGE

I voted against the major revisions of the social security and federal employees retirement plans which the U.S. House of Representatives passed last week.

I am against changing federal employees to social security because their existing retirement plan was superior. Instead, social security should have been brought up to federal retirement standards, and the deficit should have been made up by revising the federal budget priorities.

I am against any increase in taxes on working people, against raising retirement ages, and against postponing or tampering with the cost of living increases of retirement pay.

"If we want to find the money to heal social security, take it from bombs, not from bread. Pass a real jobs bill and put people back to work and then the unemployed can pay into social security.

Divert funds from the MX missile to retirement benefits. Switch our appropriations from nuclear weapons escalation to the health, hospitalization and educational needs of the American people -- and there will be no need to force federal civil servants' retirement plans down into social security but rather the opportunity to lift social security up to the level of those retirement plans. We need to send the whole mess back to committee where the entire priorities of the ingredients of our federal budgetary recipe need to be turned rightside-up.

"We must restart by totally rejecting the upside down priorities of that Robin Hood-in-reverse in the White House, rather than merely seeking to reconcile the differences within Reagan's priorities between Democrats and Republicans.

"We must consider the people above power."

BAHA'I COMMUNITY TO CELEBRATE THE YEAR 140

The year 140 will be welcomed on Monday, March 21 the first day of spring. The Baha'i will have a celebration Naw Ruz as it is called by the Baha'is, with a small celebration at 1508 N. Oaks in Tacoma. The program will start at 6:30 p.m. and will include a pot luck dinner, a white elephant gift exchange, and much more. The New Year's day celebration will be open to the public and is one of the nine Holy Days on which Baha'is suspend work each year. It always falls on March 21st and comes at the end of 19 days of fasting, when Baha'is completely abstain from all food and drink between the hours of sunrise and sunset.

The Baha'is of Tacoma hope that you will join them in their joyous celebration of Naw-Ruz. For more information and directions please contact the Baha'i Community of Tacoma at 474-8029.
